THE NEXT STEEPLECHASE.

A MEETING ON WHIT MONDAY.

Kwanti Improvements.

A Whit Monday steeplechase Meeting will be held, weather permitting, at the Fanning Steeplechase Course on May 24. The first race will start at 3 p.m. A special train will be arranged to enable the public to be there at least half an hour before the first race. Since the last meeting the entrance fee to the enclosure and public stand has been reduced to $1 a head. Subscribers can, on application, obtain two tickets admitting ladies to the Subscribers' enclosure and stand. With regard to the course the work of improvement is being carried on gradually. The bend after the fourth jump has been rounded off and the course slightly increased in length and there is now only one jump at that end instead of three; these jumps have been left on the inside of the track and will form part of a practice course which it is hoped to make complete later on. This alteration is a great improvement as it does away with the original "in and out" jump which does not figure in any real steeplechase but formed part of the original course at Kwanti owing to the fact that jumps were at first simply arranged at any fence or ditch that was on the ground already.

The rains have done a lot to improve the course generally and show up weak spots, the grass is coming up and the whole place looks all the better for it. The flat training track on the outside of the course ought to be completed, more or less, by the end of the month and available for use. It is hoped to fix definitely the programme in the course of the next day or so, but five races will be arranged, one of two miles, two of 1½ and two of 1¼ miles.

INTIMIDATION.

ALLEGED QUARREL OVER CARGO OF ARMS.

Harbour Incident.

At the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday, a boatman was the complainant in a case in which a Chinese was charged on two counts of demanding with menaces the sum of $200 and intimidation. Mr. M. W. Lo prosecuted and Mr. C. A. S. Kuss appeared for the defence.

Briefly outlining his case, Mr. Lo said that the complainant was the son of the owner of a cargo junk, at 6.30 p.m. on the 7th inst., the defendant with several others boarded his boat and asked him to deliver some cargo for them. The complainant told the party that it was then past the working hour and could not undertake the commission. The defendant replied that he would be lavishly paid for the trip, and the complainant enquired the nature of the cargo. When told that it consisted of arms, the complainant utterly refused to take the goods. The defendant told him that if he did not abide by their request he would have to pay them $200, adding that he would return a few days later for the money, and if it was not forthcoming he would be killed.

The defendant returned to the boat on the 11th and again threatened to stab the complainant, who was assaulted by the intruder. Somebody in one of the neighbouring junks blew a police whistle causing the defendant to flee. The complainant at once took up the chase and after running from one boat to another the defendant jumped into the water to be eventually arrested and handed over to the Police.

The case was adjourned till Thursday next.

AMERICAN DIVORCE IN SHANGHAI.

CAPTAIN INGRAHAM ALLEGES DESERTION.

Married Eleven Years.

The divorce action, in which Capt. Chas. N. Ingraham of the U. S. Navy is suing Mrs. Helen Ingraham for divorce on the ground of desertion, came before his Honour Judge M. D. Purdy on the 13th inst. in the United States Court for China, Shanghai.

Capt. Ingraham stated that he and Mrs. Ingraham were married at Round Hill, Virginia in 1914. He declared that although they had been married for 11½ years, Mrs. Ingraham had only lived with him about 3½ years. Because of his naval duties, it would have been impossible for her to have been with him for another three years of their married life. Mrs. Ingraham left him in Shanghai on January 1, 1925 for a trip in Europe and did not return until February of this year. He declared that he had heard through friends that she had stated that she would not live with him again.

Mrs. Valerie Rodman, who was a personal friend of Mrs. Ingraham, stated that she had a conversation with Mrs. Ingraham in which the latter declared that she would never again live with Capt. Ingraham.

After hearing the evidence of these two witnesses, the court took the case under advisement. Mr. Leonard G. Husar appeared for Capt. Ingraham. The case was not contested.

CHILDREN DO NOT FIGHT Against Baby's Own Tablets.

Easy to Give and Pleasant to Take.

Children require special medicine of their own, made of such ingredients only as cannot possibly do them harm, and put up in exactly the right dosage to produce without loss of time the desired effects. Baby's Own Tablets precisely answers this description, being absolutely free from harmful drugs or opiates, and equally safe and helpful to the infant in arms as to the child of six years or more. Furthermore, they have the advantage of being tasteless, pleasant in appearance, and free from all the horrors associated by children with castor oil, senna, Gregory powder and similar nauseating medicines.

Baby's Own Tablets are a promptly efficacious remedy for infantile indigestion, constipation, colic, diarrhoea, simple fever, croup, colds, teething troubles and worms. Almost like magic they bring calm health-giving sleep in a natural way.

Your chemist sells Baby's Own Tablets, or post free, 60 cents, the vial, from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 60, Kiangse Road, Shanghai.

ALLEGED CONSPIRACY.

ATTEMPT TO DEFAUD A MERCHANT FIRM.

$8,000 Involved.

A charge of conspiring, with another not in custody, to defraud the firm of $8,000, was preferred against the managing partner of a firm of California merchants (Hin Yick, Winglok Street) at the Central Magistrate's yesterday.

Mr. E. Davidson appeared to prosecute, and Mr. J. T. Prior defended.

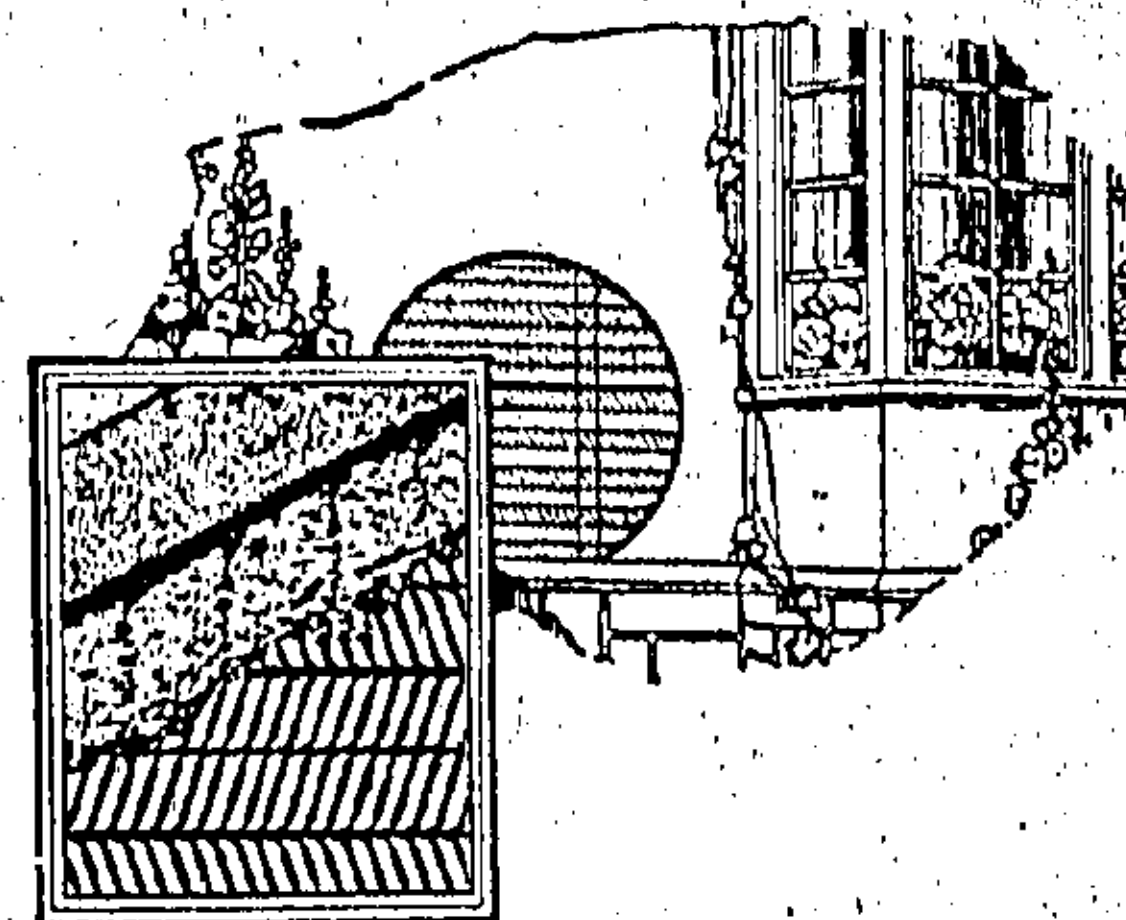

In his opening statement, Mr. Prior explained that the firm, like many similar ones, had a number of depositors. Trouble developed, and no business was done for some time.

Early this year, three partners, including the defendant, decided to dispose of a piece of property. With the money received, it was proposed to pay off certain encumbrances and to pay the remainder in the form of a dividend to the depositors.

Mr. Davidson went on to refer in detail to various agreements and the procedure adopted to dispose of the money, and said that eventually a claim was received against the firm which they knew nothing about, and which was alleged to be a fraudulent one.

The case was adjourned until Friday.

EMPIRE SILK.

EXPERIMENTS IN CEYLON.

Rugby, April 19.
Lieutenant-General Sir William Furse, Director of the Imperial Institute, in lecturing before the Royal Society of Arts, said that a strong Advisory Committee of the Imperial Institute was dealing with the subject of silk production within the Empire. The Committee's enquiries and experiments had indicated that there are a number of British countries notably Kenya, Uganda, Jamaica and Iraq, where, with adequate encouragement, sericulture could be undertaken or extended with material advantage to growers and to the industrial development of the country concerned. Largely as the outcome of the patient but ceaseless work of this Committee, a flatiron was now being erected in Ceylon and "Ceylon Silk" of highest quality—known as such for the first time in history—would be on the market within a few months from now and would, chiefly, he hoped, if not altogether, be used in England.

Mr. A. M. Samuel, Parliamentary Secretary to the Department of Overseas Trade, said there was no need for silk manufacturers to fear the artificial silk industry. There was a great opening for silk in Kenya, Iraq and perhaps in some of the West India Islands for producers of silk.—British Wireless.

London March 8.—The Jerusalem correspondent of the Daily Express says the negotiations for the Ruthenberg scheme to harness the River Jordan for the production of electric power and irrigation of the Jordan Valley have been concluded, and that the British High Commissioner, Lord Plumer, has signed a £2,000,000 concession. This is a renewal, under changed conditions, of the original Ruthenberg agreement which expired in 1923. The Ruthenberg Company is financed by the Rothschild interests of Paris and a group of Jewish financiers in America and England.

MEDITERRANEAN CLOUDS.

TURKEY SUSPICIOUS OF ITALY.

Some Wild Conjectures.

London, April 19. Clouds hang over the blue waters of the Mediterranean. The situation there is obscured from east to west. To-day intricate negotiations open in an attempt to define the French, Spanish and Rifian zones in Morocco; and meanwhile the French and Turkish press are apprehensive concerning Signor Mussolini's intentions in North-West Africa and Asia Minor, respectively.

There have been reports of a Græco-Italian pact, and Greek military preparations which Italy is assisting. On top of this comes news that the Turks are mobilising, and the Turkish newspapers give prominence to rumours of a possible conflict with Italy, though they insist that there is "nothing abnormal in the situation." Mussolini's visit to Tripoli is undoubtedly responsible for most alarming conjectures, including his making a bid for the leadership in the Arab world, also his determination to secure for Italy a role equal to that of France and Spain in Tangier.—Reuter.

MARINE COURT.

FINES FOR OBSTRUCTION AND DREDGING.

Yesterday's Cases.

At the Marine Court yesterday, before Lieut. Commr. G. F. Holc, the mistresses of four harbour boats were charged with lying inshore during dark hours on April 18 and pleading guilty, were fined $5 with the alternative of five days' imprisonment with hard labour.

The masters of four cargo boats were charged with making fast outside five others alongside s.s. Anyo Maru on April 18 and pleading guilty were severally fined $5 with the alternative of five days' imprisonment with hard labour.

Three mistresses of fishing boats were charged with using drags and grapplings for the purpose of lifting objects from the harbour bed without the permission of the Harbour Master on April 18 and pleading guilty, were fined $5 with the alternative of five days' imprisonment with hard labour.

THE MOROCCAN PARLEY.

MEETING OF DELEGATES ADJOURNED.

Oudja, April 19. The first meeting of the French, Spanish and Rifian delegates lasted four hours.

They examined to what extent the conditions previously indicated could be taken as a basis for negotiations.

The Rifians will depart for the Rif by aeroplane in order to make a report. The pourparlers will be resumed on their return, on April 21.—Havas.

TATTOOING A CHRISTIAN.

STRANGE PERSECUTION IN KUEILIN.

Commemorating Dr. Sun.

A correspondent writing from Kueilin to the N. C. D. News says:

March 12 witnessed a great Kuomintang demonstration in Kueilin. Over a thousand enthusiasts paraded the streets with banners flying, bugles blowing, and drums beating, in honour of the late Dr. Sun Yat-sen.

By permission, the procession entered the extensive compound of the American Southern Baptist Mission. After cursing the missionaries, some attempted to break rank, but were reprimanded by a certain Mr. Liu, employed as business agent. Words soon came to blows. Liu was carried off, wounded in the head, to provide sport for the crowd. But it was not long before a detachment of soldiers, sent by Brigadier-General Chong, the military official in charge, rescued him from his tormentors.

A guard of soldiers was also sent to prevent further trouble at the Baptist compound. The demonstrators' next step was to protest publicly against General Chong's action in trying to restore order, and to force the stores to close till Liu was handed back to them. After the stores had remained closed for a day, the prisoner was handed back to the demonstrators. He was bound, and two Chinese characters, "yang nu" (foreign slave) were roughly tattooed on either cheek. In this condition he was paraded all over the city. Finally he was released and told to leave Kueilin at once, never to return. Chinese who are not extreme, explain that Mr. Liu was treated with such cruelty by enemies he had made, for, for some years in this place, he has continually threatened tradesmen, and sometimes had them imprisoned for breaches of contract, with little mercy shown. With an attempt to enter the Baptist compound on the 13th, which was foiled by the guards, the leader of the file of soldiers was degraded, and the incident closed. It is reported that the Provincial Authorities at Nanning have wired Kueilin demanding that the leading demonstrators be punished, but as yet this cannot be confirmed.

HAWAIIAN ERUPTION.

A NATIVE VILLAGE OVERWHELMED.

Lava 50 Feet Deep.

New York, April 19. A message from Kona, Hawaii, says an avalanche of lava from the volcano Maunaloa, yesterday, overwhelmed the village of Hoopulo, eighteen miles distant.

The fate of its hundred inhabitants is unknown.

Several houses at Kona have also been buried under fifty feet of lava. The flood of molten rock struck the sea, causing the ocean water to "boil" for several hundred feet from the shore.—Reuter's American Service.

OUR POLICY IN INDIA.

The extraordinarily enthusiastic welcome given to Lord Reading on his return to England after completing his term as Viceroy of India indicates the popularity of the opinion that he has proved to be one of India's greatest Governor Generals. Prior to his departure from Delhi he, and Lady Reading, were entertained at many brilliant social functions, and it was the unanimous verdict of the Indian English newspapers that the administration of the past five years has been exceptionally successful in promoting good Anglo-Indian relations. Lord Reading's task has been far from easy, for he went to India at a time when it was sadly torn from the political standpoint, and in the wake of certain important reform measures, which met with a mixed reception and complicated issues which were already complicated enough. The experiments of Mr. Montagu and their clash with the Chelmsford policy brought the inevitable aftermath of trouble, and the outlook was not at all bright when Lord Reading commenced his Viceroyalty. But, as was predicted at the time, he has brought to bear a great deal of sagacity and understanding to his task and he has, by force of intellect and example, brought India nearer to peace and concord than she has been for years.

In his farewell address to the Indian Legislature, Lord Reading paid high tribute to the Reforms which had been passed in England, the importance of which, he said, was not even yet sufficiently realised in India. He believed that those Reforms put India on the road to the realisation of more complete unity and higher, national, self-expression and that India's new Constitution took its place among the great historic measures passed by Parliament for the better government of India and the greater contentment of her people. It is as well to reiterate what so many people often lose sight of, namely, that the goal of British policy in India to-day remains the progressive realisation of responsible Government in India as an integral part of the British Empire and that, although India is being assisted to acquire fitness for self-government, it is no part of British policy to aim at the severance of India from the British Commonwealth of Nations. The first task is to give to India the benefit of British democratic institutions, and it is the work of overcoming the inherent difficulties that stand in the way that must be confronted by India and her political leaders. The essential principle underlying English institutions is based on a fundamental unity of sentiment and on a desire to waive the claims of individual or sectional advantage for the benefit of the common weal. Unfortunately, India's internal conditions are not naturally conducive to solidarity. Peopled by different races, with separate historical antecedents and conflicting ideals of culture, India possesses various elements which do not tend towards unity. Sharp inequalities of development in education and civilisation divide men, whilst creeds and castes tend to separate influences. There are complex administrative problems which cannot be relegated into the background or disregarded, and there are communal differences that tend to become more acute. The great problem of India is to weld this complex maze of differences into a unified political entity. That was the aim which Lord Reading set out to further, and that will remain the stable policy of His Majesty's Government, notwithstanding the change of successive Viceroy. So far as Lord Reading is concerned, the unanimous opinion is that he has made an extremely valuable contribution.

The Shakespeare Fund.

It will probably interest many in Hongkong to know that the Governors of the Shakespeare Memorial Theatre are making an appeal to Japanese lovers of Shakespearean drama for contributions towards the cost of rebuilding the theatre, which was recently destroyed by fire. In the course of the appeal, mention is made of the fact that the Japanese have always shown the keenest interest in Shakespearean productions, and it is probable that some special arrangements will be made when the building is reconstructed to indicate what proportion of assistance was received from Japanese admirers of the great bard. Some thousands of pounds have already been received towards the fund, and it is noteworthy also that some of the bigger newspapers in the United States are making an appeal to the people of America to support the movement. All this suggests that Hongkong might well help in this work, and we can think of no more appropriate body to give the idea an impetus here than the Society of St. George. Next Friday is "England's Day," and also the anniversary of the birth of Shakespeare. It is being marked locally by the holding of a big English concert at the Theatre Royal, and if the function results in a profit, we can imagine no better use to which this money could be put than to assist the Memorial Theatre Reconstruction Fund. In any event, it would be especially appropriate that a special appeal be made to St. George's Societies all over the world, in which case we do not doubt that the local organisation would readily respond thereto.

OBITUARY.

FAMOUS ACTOR-MANAGER DEAD.

London, April 19.
The death is announced of Sir Squire Bancroft, the famous actor-manager. — Reuter.
[Sir Squire, who was 85 years of age, first appeared on the stage in Birmingham as long ago as 1861, and acted afterwards at the leading provincial theatre with all the prominent "stars" of the day. For twenty years he was manager of the old Prince of Wales and Haymarket Theatres, during which time, the modern revival of the stage was started. He retired from an exceptional career of successful management in 1885, but he afterwards acted a little with Irving. He was knighted by Queen Victoria in 1897 for his notable services to the profession, and during the following years devoted much of his time to "readings" for Hospital throughout the country, by which means he raised over £20,000. Among other appointments, he was President of the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art, and a member of the Lord Chamberlain's Advisory Board for the Licensing of Plays. He had published a book of sixty years' recollections and other works. For many years he was one of the most picturesque figures of London life.]

GENERAL FENG.

IS HE ALIVE OR DEAD?

A resident of Peking who has followed events in the north in the closest manner has just arrived in Shanghai, and he propounds the view that the Christian General, Feng Yu-hsiang, is probably no longer alive, says the N. C. Daily News. Coming from any but the most reliable source of opinion, such a view would be ignored, but so closely has this gentleman been in touch with affairs that his view calls for consideration. It is based on two main circumstances, the first of these being that nobody is known to have seen Feng since the middle of February, while secondly that, if alive, he is of such a character as to insist on taking an active part in the present political situation. The latter we can well believe, for few public men, once they have been bloodied in political strife, can stay for long out of it. An example of this is to be seen in the case of Gladstone, who, after one of Disraeli's victories at the polls, to all intents and purposes retired from public life. The Liberal Party had apparently fallen on evil days, and, according to the biographer of Disraeli, Gladstone was prepared to hand the leadership over to others of the party. Nevertheless when the next election occurred he came forward in his very best fighting trim. This is no isolated instance, and when one looks at the position broadly it must seem strange that Feng Yu-hsiang has not personally in some way intervened in recent events. A great effort of self-denial and self-effacement might account for it, and in no way must the opinion to which we allude be taken for gospel. Nevertheless in troubled times such as the present nothing is impossible.

ENGINEERING DISPUTE.

STRIKE BALLOT PAPERS ISSUED.

London, April 19.
The London Joint Engineering Trades' Committee has decided to issue ballot papers returnable on May 31 on the question of a strike to enforce the London application for an increase in wages by 41 weekly. — Reuter.

PRETTY WEDDING.

MR. S. B. TAN—MISS ELIZABETH WONG.

A pretty wedding took place at St. John's Cathedral this afternoon, the contracting parties being Mr. S. B. Tan, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Tan, Cheng-Yun, of Singapore, and Miss Elizabeth Lu-sien Wong, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wong, of Hongkong. There was a large gathering of guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. V. H. Copley Moyle, Chaplain of the Cathedral.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was attired in a gown of white satin charmeuse and georgette, embroidered with silver. Her veil was embroidered with silver and trimmed with orange blossoms, whilst she carried a bouquet of white roses and maiden-hair fern.

Attending the bride were Miss Beatrice Lam, Miss Estelle May, and Miss Josephine Wong, who were attired in dresses of shell pink charmeuse satin and georgette, and blue satin and georgette, trimmed with silver, with hair ornaments of pearl and silver. They carried baskets and bouquets of pink roses.

The bride's mother wore a Chinese ceremonial dress of black satin embroidered in silk with red skirt. Mr. Y. K. Wong carried out the duties of "best man," whilst Mr. F. Mason was at the organ.

Subsequent to the wedding a large-attended reception was held at the China Merchants' Club. The happy couple are later leaving for North China, where the honeymoon is to be spent, the bride's going-away dress being of mauve crepe de chine, embroidered with beads.

A New York man proves to firemen that the tone vibrations produced by his playing a violin will put out a fire.

That's new. We have heard violin players whose music would stop a clock or turn milk sour—but this putting out the fire business is a new one.

The crazy race that humans run is robbing folks of lots of fun. They're willing down beneath the sun, with no real chance to climb. Just think of all the pep that's oozed from folk through being too confused. Where, if good common sense were used, they'd simply take their time.

Do well the tasks you undertake, but, say, don't let your system break. Use judgment, man, for goodness sake. The warning wind is blowing. Don't bubble over with too much thrill. To sap your strength is bound to kill. Accomplish all you can, but still, be kind to yourself.

There are figures to show the human race is 30 per cent. more educated than it was 50 years ago. Still how many folks in this vast audience here to-day can tell us whether an anchovy is a fur-bearing animal or a silk garment that buttons up the back?

Men appear to have fallen at last to the artificial buttonhole habit, judging from the number of men seen lately wearing flowers which owed nothing of their being to any growing plant.

Artificial carnations attract the greater number of men, and some of the flowers need to be investigated very closely for proof that they are not real. The most attractive of these new buttonholes for men was a deep red and most realistic carnation bloom, made entirely, apparently, from small feathers.

CHINESE MILLIONAIRE.

DEATH IN THE PHILIPPINES.

Benito Sly Cong Bleng, local Chinese millionaire and one of the most influential Chinese merchants in the Philippines, died yesterday afternoon at the Kabilihan Lumber Mills, Kabilihan, Tayabas, says the Manila Bulletin of the 14th instant.

A telegram announcing his death came from Mr. Edward Chesley, manager and part owner of the Kabilihan mills.

Three telegrams were received from Mr. Chesley by Leoncio Sly Cong Bleng, manager of Sly Cong Bleng, Inc., and the eldest Sly son. The first, which was received at 3.50 o'clock, stated that the millionaire merchant was taken ill suddenly. It requested that a doctor be rushed to Kabilihan. The second telegram arrived a few minutes later, stating that Mr. Sly had suffered a severe attack. At about 4 o'clock, the telegram announcing his death was received.

The news of Mr. Sly's death came as a sudden shock to his friends and relatives. Leoncio Bleng, his eldest son, upon receiving the first telegram, prepared to send doctors and nurses to Kabilihan by special train, but the death telegram was received before the train departed. Instructions were wired to have the body sent to Manila this morning.

Despite the advice of his sons, relatives and friends, Mr. Sly left for Kabilihan April 1, to inspect the lumber mills there, of which he is the principal owner. He was accompanied by a nurse. Last Sunday, two local doctors left for Kabilihan to attend him. He had been ill for three years.

While in Amoy in 1922, he became ill and since had been partially paralyzed in the right leg. His death is believed to have been caused by a cerebral attack.

Mr. Sly was an outstanding figure in the history of local business. He came as a youngster of 18 to the Philippines forty years ago, with a few hundred dollars in his possession. Since that time, by dealing in rice, sugar, hemp, lumber and practically every product that the Philippines exports, built up an estate that is now valued at about P20,000,000. Besides being the head of Sly Cong Bleng, Inc., he was the head of the Tong Yek Steamship Company, Philipinas Lumber Company and various other concerns. He was a director and a large shareholder in the China Banking Corporation.

He is survived by the wife and three sons, two of whom are employed in their father's business in Manila.

CORRESPONDENCE.

[To the Editor of the Hongkong Telegraph.]

J. Krishnamurti.

Sir,—We notice that in the unedited version of our article on the Coming of the World Teacher, in your yesterday's issue, in the line 22 to 23 from the top, the following sentence was contained:—"Krishnamurti had been selected by India Theosophists to give his body as a vehicle for the World Teacher on His approaching Coming."

The three words "by India Theosophists" were not contained in the article as sent you, and as they are contradictory to the actual facts, we shall feel obliged if you will kindly give publicity to this letter. ELECTRIC PLANT.

LOCAL TENDER FOR KWANG-CHOW-WAN.

The French Authorities at Kwang-Chow-Wan have recently invited tenders for the erection and maintenance of an electric lighting plant, and it is interesting to note that Monsieur J. L. Durant, of the Europe-Asia Trading Company, and partner of Madame Flint, made the lowest tender in competition with several French firms, his price being eighteen cents per kilowatt (Indo-China currency).

The public meeting called for the purpose of opening the tenders was presided over by Monsieur Grandjean (Administrateur des Services Civils, Agence de l'Université) supported by M. Moisy (Major of Tchekam), and also the head of the Public Works Office and Wireless Station.

The plans and conditions have now been submitted to the Resident Superior, M. Blanchard de la Brosse, Chief Administrator of the Territory, for final approval. Should M. Durant be successful, it is his intention to also erect sugar refining works, and ice-making plant, aerated water and beer factory and facilities for the refining of peanut oil.

SPANISH FLIGHT.

ESTEVEZ ORDERED TO RETURN.

Madrid, April 19.
The Minister of War has telegraphed instructing the airman Estevez and his mechanic to return to Madrid as soon as his health permits. Therefore Estevez will not be able to continue his flight.

Spanish gratitude at the aid of the British Air Force in searching for Estevez is shown by the thousands of callers, in response to a suggestion in the newspapers and by the Spanish Broadcasting Company, leaving their cards at the British Embassy including the King, Gen. Primo de Rivera, the Minister of War, and the Commanders of all the Garrisons.—Reuter.

POLICE FORCE.

TO-MORROW'S INSPECTION.

The annual muster of the Hongkong Police Force, at which His Excellency the Governor will carry out an official inspection of all ranks, and distribute the police medals will be held within the compound of the Central Police Station to-morrow (Wednesday) afternoon.

This will be followed, at 5.30 p.m. by a demonstration of the working of the new fire boat at Queen's Pier, at which the public is invited to be present.

NEGOTIATE.

Rugby, April 19.
Sir Austen Chamberlain stated in the House of Commons that the British Ambassador left Constantinople on 16th April for Ankara, where he would resume negotiations with the Turkish Minister of Foreign Affairs on the subject of the Mosul Frontier.—British Wireless.

SITUATION EASES.

Constantinople, April 19.
Following the submission of the British proposals with regard to Mosul to the Turkish Cabinet by the Foreign Commissar, whom the British Ambassador interviewed on Saturday, the general situation is much more reassuring. The feeling of alarm during the past few days are slowly subsiding, and it is felt that the Italian objectives are rather Somalia and Abyssinia than regions nearer home.—Reuter.

"BELLIPOSE BLUSTER."

SENATOR WALSH DESCRIBES MUSSOLINI.

Washington, April 19.
The Italian Premier, Signor Mussolini, was oratorically attacked in the Senate by Senator Walsh, who declared that the Tripoli trip bristled with bellicose bluster, and the Kaiser had never rattled the sword more ominously. Senator Walsh contended that approval of the Italian debt settlement would simply assist Mussolini the supreme Dictator, to arrange finances so that he can precipitate another war or bluster about until the fear of such a purpose is general.—Reuter's American Service.

NON-BRITISH FILMS.

PROTEST BY INDUSTRIES FEDERATION.

London, April 19.
The Federation of British Industries has drawn the attention of the President of the Board of Trade to the practical monopoly obtained by foreign film-producing concerns in the cinema programmes throughout the Empire as being most detrimental to British prestige and prejudicial to the interests of the Empire, especially in dominions containing large coloured populations. The hope is expressed that the subject will be placed on the Imperial Conference agenda.—Reuter.

MRS. H. MORITA.

Our Portrait is of Mrs. RODGERS, of 9, Lisjowal Street, North Brighthelm, London, England, who writes:-

"I broke out all over my body in large red blotches, which after a little while came into large sores. I went to two hospitals and to two or three doctors, but they became worse instead of better,
so I tried your 'Clarke's Blood Mixture', and am now quite cured. My feet were covered with the sores, but only scars can now be seen, so you will understand how grateful I am and why I bless the day that I tried it. You may make what use you think fit of this, as it may bring relief to some other poor soul."

Sufferers from Bad Legs, Abscesses, Ulcers, Eczema, Glands, Swellings, Piles,
Erysipelas, Boils, Pimples, Eruptions, Rheumatism, Gout, should realize that lotions and ointments are but slow temporary relief-to be sure of cure and lasting benefit, the blood must be thoroughly cleansed of the impure waste matter, the true cause of such troubles. Clarke's Blood Mixture quickly attacks, overcomes, and cures the impurities, that is why so many remarkable recoveries stand to its credit. Pleasant to take, and free from injurious ingredients.

PERSECUTION IN CHINA.

MISSIONARIES CURSED TO THEIR FACES.

Kueilin, March 15.-"Others had trials of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea moreover of bonds and imprisonments."

This brief description of the trials through which the early Church passed in Apostolic days has just been repeated in cruel vividness during the past few days in an inland City where several of our missionaries are located, says a N. C. D. News correspondent.

The unrest and agitation in China which has been sweeping through the land with relentless force has in recent months turned against the Christian Church, and missionaries and Chinese Christians alike have been called to suffer, and sometimes even life itself has been threatened. Such an experience recently befell a Chinese Christian in the City of Kueilin.
This man a few months ago assisted Messrs. Crobb and Church in their studies of the Chinese language.

Insults by Students.

On March 12 the students in Kueilin, a large educational centre, met to commemorate the anniversary of the death of Dr. Sun Yat-sen. About one thousand students paraded the city carrying banners and streamers on which were written Bolshevistic slogans of a revolutionary nature. After parading the city the crowd marched into the Baptist Mission Compound.
Here the parading students cried out, "Down with Imperialism-destroy the Christian Church." The Christian girls were called by name, saying that they were the dogs of the foreigners and sometimes were even pelted with stones. The missionaries were cursed to their faces, but remembering "when He was reviled He reviled not again," they patiently bore the insult.

Chinese Christian's Ordeal.

The Chinese Christian in question, however, seems to have been less patient, and he was set on by the mob mob struck him with their fists and with stones and brick-bats, the latter cutting an ugly gash from which the blood spurted profusely. The man was then bound with ropes and with blood streaming down his face was led off to the City square where he was tied to a post amid the hoots and jeers of the frenzied throng. Meanwhile, the authorities had been notified of what was happening, and urged to rescue the unfortunate captive, but they were either powerless or afraid to interfere.
After hours of insult and suffering gradually the mocking crowd began to disperse, and when the throng had grown smaller soldiers came and rescued the prisoner. The man was taken to the yamen where he was kept all night.

The crowd considered this was interfering with their rights, and soon the rabble again assembled, and going to the yamen demanded the prisoner to be handed back to them.
This demand was complied with,
and the unfortunate victim with swollen face and hair dishevelled was once more given over to the mob.

Treated as a Criminal.

He was again bound, and with his accusation written on paper and fastened to his back he was led through the streets by the howling mob like a criminal being led to execution. As he was hustled along the streets his tormentors called out to the people en route,
"Come see the way we treat the Christians, and the way we long we will deal with the others."

When because of fatigue he lagged in his gait he was kicked and pounded and made to walk faster. He was again taken to the city square where he was once tied to the dreaded post. Strings of fire-crackers were then secured and set off at his feet, while the sparks flew in his haggard face and burned his skin. Some of the more cruel in the crowd wanted to burn him, while others suggested the branding-irons.

Finally it was decided to tattoo him on the cheeks with the two words "Foreign slave," and this was done by the use of nails and needles. After the tattooing was completed he was released as a marked man. Where he is now we do not know. The last we heard of him he was fleeing for his life.
He had called at one of our Mission stations where one of our missionaries had dressed his swollen forehead. He had succeeded in scrapping away the tattooed marks until they were hardly visible, and was hoping to reach some distant friends where he could find shelter and be kept and cared for.

HOME RUGGER.

OXFORD U.R.F.C. ON TOUR.

London, April 19.
Touring the Continent, the Oxford University Rugby Fifteen met and defeated Grenoble by 20 points to nil. Against the Lyonsais they met with harder opposition, and a fine struggle resulted in a victory for the Lyonsais by 18 points to 14. Jura also put up a good fight but succumbed by 20 points to 18.

Yorkshire's 15-14 win over Hampshire in the County Championship gained them pride of place for the eighth time. Before the grouping of the counties they were declared champions in 1889 and 1890 by the Rugby Union after winning all their games, and in the six succeeding years they were champions five times. Their success this year however is the first since 1896.

The meeting of Blackheath and Cardiff at the Welsh club's headquarters was one of the finest struggles of the week-end. Cardiff won by 23 points to 20.

A COMING CHAMPION?

London, April 19.

[Yesterday, April 19, the news came through that Austin had been defeated by three sets to two in the Men's Final of the British Hard Courts Championships at Torquay. His conqueror was Jacques Brugnon, the French champion.]

SERVICES RACQUETS FINAL.

LIEUT. HALSEY'S VERSATILITY.

London, April 19.
In the final of the Navy and Royal Marines Racquets Championship, Lieutenant Halse defeated Lieutenant Litchfield-Speers by three sets to one.

[The winner of the title last year was unable to compete since he is serving on H. M. S. Hawkins, the flagship of the China Squadron. Lieut. Halsey is the most consistent cricketer seen in Hongkong for many years. He wields a brilliant bat, and bowls a splendid ball. He indulges too in rugby and hockey.]

At the National Sporting Club in a twenty-rounds contest for the British flyweight championship, Clark beat Socks in the twentieth round, the referee stopping the fight.—Reuter.

It was a fast and clean fight. Clark started confidently, scoring rapidly with a variety of blows.

He was very successful with quick right-left leads to the body and head, followed by straight lefts to the face. In the concluding rounds, Socks was severely punished, but he fought back most gamely. In the twentieth round, Clark sent him staggering across the ring from a right to the jaw. Clark rushed over for the knock-out, but the referee intervened.—Reuter.

Nantes, March 8.—A machine which sets out cabbage seedlings at a rapid speed has been invented by the Abbe Baelo, parish priest of the village of Troize-Vents. Having first patented the machine, the abbe, with the aid of the local blacksmith and a young engineer, proceeded to build and try it. With a little adjusting it functioned perfectly. Each seedling is caught gently by a moving arm and placed in a little hole, which is immediately filled up by another attachment.

BRITISH SHIPBUILDING.

THE PRESENT SITUATION.

London, March 4, 1926.—Although British shipbuilders as a body are by no means disposed to agree that their industry is emerging from the unprecedented depression which has hung over it for so long, and contend, in fact, that the position and outlook are as serious as was the case a year ago, when the depths of the slump were thought to have been plumbed, the fact remains that the last month has witnessed a considerable inflow of contracts for new ships. Moreover, in a few cases they have been secured in the teeth of strong foreign competition, which confirms what has long been suspected here, viz., that the Continental yards which captured orders for British ships only succeeded in doing so because our builders were not prepared to work at a loss. Those who have been taking a more cheerful view of the future of our shipyards and have, indeed, been predicting the long-awaited revival, can offer some substantial evidence in support of their view, for inquiries made in the principal shipbuilding districts of the country reveal the striking fact that during the past six weeks orders for no fewer than forty-one merchant ships, two light cruisers and four small war vessels have been placed. Of these the Clyde alone has received 32, which may well mean employment for approximately ten thousand men over a period of eighteen months at least. It is significant to find that this welcome batch of sixteen are to be driven by Diesel engines, a proof that the reluctance of British owners to adopt this method of propulsion is fast being overcome.

Throughout the depression the Clyde has been in a more happy position than other shipbuilding areas, and it is all the more satisfactory, therefore, that the present spurt of activity, which may, of course, prove to be only a flash in the pan, has extended to the North-east Coast, where the lack of work has compelled many yards to shut down and caused much suffering to tens of thousands of workers. An analysis of the orders recently given out shows that the Tyne, the Tees and the Humber have all received a share, the first-named district having obtained two large motor-ships for the Australian trade, with the prospect of a third to follow. The Tees is to build two Diesel-driven passenger vessels for New York owners, a grain-carrying steamer for Canada, and two cargo steamers for owners whose names have not yet been made public; while at Hull a cargo steamer for service between Harwich and the Continent is to be constructed. In addition, Barrow is to build an insulated motor-ship for trade between Great Britain and Canada; Dundee two ferry steamers for the Mersey; and Bristol two coasting steamers for British owners. On the face of this the optimists would appear to have solid grounds for their faith, especially as there is other important new construction work being talked about and likely, we understand, to be placed in the very near future.

The fact is that there exists in certain shipping circles the belief that expenditure of capital upon new ships is justified by the outlook. British shipowners are notoriously a very conservative body of men and the least likely in the world to be carried away by sentiment, and it is all the more significant, therefore, that there should have been this modest rush to new contracts. The example given has proved a very heartening one for shipbuilders and their employees, and hopes are entertained that now the ball has been set rolling other owners will decide that the time has come for them to follow suit. In view of the considerable amount of attention which has been aroused by the extent to which shipowners have taken advantage of the guarantees provided under the Trade Facilities Act, it is interesting to find that within recent weeks guarantees have been granted for no fewer than 17 vessels, involving £1,392,500. For four vessels to be constructed on the Clyde for Messrs. MacAndrews and Co. (a member of the Royal Mail Steam Packet group) £325,000 has been guaranteed; for four Elder Dempster liners, £300,000; for three ships for the Coast Lines of Liverpool, £300,000; two ships for Messrs. Lawther, Latta and Co., £180,000; the balance being made up of dredgers and a tank steamer. In addition,

The Blue Star Line have obtained a further guarantee of £250,000, making a total for that undertaking of £2,750,000.

In the circumstances, it is not surprising that the shipyard workers should have voted heavily in favour of accepting the proposed new agreement between the Shipbuilding Employers' Federation and the Federation of Engineering and Shipbuilding Trades, the object of which is to put the relations of employers and men on a more amicable basis, and to settle on a procedure for avoiding disputes. This evidence of a desire on both sides to work together for the prosperity of the industry is extremely welcome and augurs well for the future. Briefly, the agreement is designed to secure more prompt consideration and settlement of questions arising in the industry, and without those stoppages of work which have so often in the past caused hardships and heavy losses to both sides, far out of proportion to the amounts involved in the disputes. The important point is that provision is made for submitting all matters in dispute other than wages, for which separate machinery is set up, either local or national conferences of employers and employees, Shipping and Engineering.

LOCARNO TREATY.

NOT YET RATIFIED.

Rugby, April 19.

Sir Austin Chamberlain, replying to a question in the House of Commons, said that none of the contracting parties had so far deposited their ratification of the Treaty of Locarno with the League of Nations at Geneva.

A Labour Member asked if there was any doubt that some Governments might not ratify the Treaty? Sir Austin Chamberlain replied, "Certainly not. There is no doubt about it."—British Wireless.

MOROCCAN PEACE PARLEY.

A PRELIMINARY OBSTACLE.

Ujda, April 19.

The difficulties which have arisen in the Moroccan peace conference, in connection with which one of the Riffi delegates has flown in a French aeroplane to consult with Abd-el-Krim and the Chiefs of Tribes, is explained in a statement by the Riffi delegates that they are unable to accept, without modification, the Franco-Spanish demands for the immediate release of prisoners and the unhindered advance of Franco-Spanish troops on certain positions at present occupied by Riffs before the official negotiations have opened.—Reuter.

SHIPPING NEWS.

Berlin, March 8.—Seeking to eliminate the tremendous consumption of coal in electric power plants, Dr. Walter Paul, electrical engineer, has devised a thermomagnetic electric generator. He believes it will supplant steam driven turbines for generating electric current even before the advent of super-hydroelectric power combines. Dr. Paul is said to have demonstrated his apparatus with success before the German Electro-Technical Society. It is based on the fact that the induced magnetism of soft iron decreases and increases as the temperature of the iron falls and rises. The device consists of a heavy soft iron ring magnetized by an electrical current. In the centre of the ring is hung an induction coil. As the ring is heated and then allowed to cool an alternating current is induced in the wiring.
